

Björn Borg is looking for a super strong Sales Representative in Germany.

At Björn Borg, we strive to be game changers, both on and off the court – just like our founder Björn Borg, the tennis player. A man who had long hair in a short hair sport and played with a two-handed backhand and a wooden racket, and still managed to be the best. It's in our genes to challenge the norms, to always be superior to our competitors – both through the underwear and sportswear that we make, as well as in our culture. That's why we are looking for active people who truly understand what it means to be a game changer, to always push the limits and go that extra mile. People who not necessarily are, but who have the will to become physically and mentally superior.

We are looking for you who...

- Works as a Seller, a Sales representative, Fields sales or similarly.
- Has at least 3 years of experience in Sales, preferably within fashion or sports.
- Constantly strives for new challenges.
- Has experience of working successfully towards achieving your own sales goals.
- Can communicate in German unhindered, both in speech and writing.
- Has worked with strong brands.
- Dares to be different.
- Stays on the court long after practice has ended.
- Always pushes yourself and others to the limit.

This is a full-time position with responsibility of the German market, stationed out of Berlin. You will most likely work about 1 day a week at our HQ in central Stockholm, while the rest of your time will be spent in Berlin. Traveling between Berlin and Stockholm is included as part of your job description, while the housing situation will be handled privately by you. You will report directly to our Export Manager, who is stationed in Stockholm.
